Code of Conduct for Children and Young Athletes

Sport should be safe, fun and conducted in a spirit of fair play. As a young person you are entitled to the best possible environment to participate in sports. You deserve to be given enjoyable, safe sporting opportunities, free from abuse of any kind. You have rights, which must be respected, and responsibilities that you must accept. You should always treat other athletes and team leaders with fairness and respect.

You are entitled to:

- Be safe and feel safe
- Be listened to
- Be believed
- Be treated with dignity, sensitivity and respect
- Have your voice heard in your sport
- Participate on an equal and non-discriminatory basis
- Have fun and enjoy your sport
- Experience competition at a level at which you are happy
- Make complaints and have them dealt with
- Get help against those that bully
- Say No
- To protect your body
- Privacy and confidentiality

You should always:

- Treat all group or team members and your Sports Leaders with respect
- Act fairly and responsibly at all times, do your best
- Respect other group or team members
- Respect opponents and be gracious in defeat
- Abide by the rules as set out by the group or team you are with
- Support and assist where appropriate with the running of your group

You should never:

- Cheat or seek to gain an unfair advantage
- Intimidate, use violence or physical contact that is not welcome
- Shout at or argue with another person unreasonably
- Cause harm to or damage property
- Bully or threaten another person online or offline
- Take banned substances or consume alcohol or recreational drugs
- Spread or circulate rumours online or offline about another person
- Tell lies

Parental Code of Conduct

- Athletics should be safe, fun and conducted in a spirit of fair play
- Encourage your child to learn the rules and play within them.
- Discourage unfair play and arguing with officials.
- Help your child to recognise good performance, not just results.
- Never force your child to take part in sport.
- Set a good example by recognising fair play and applauding good performances of all.
- Never punish or belittle a child for losing or making mistakes.
- Publicly accept officials' judgments.
- Support your child's involvement and help them to enjoy their sport.
- Use correct and proper language at all times.
- Encourage and guide performers to accept responsibility for their own performance and behaviour.
